

HOMWORK HELPERS

World Cultures

Ages 3-8

Hats Off to Hair

Ages 4-7

Kids from many cultures show us the beauty, splendor, and wonder of our hairstyles.

 Buy this book

The Ugly Vegetables

Ages 4-7

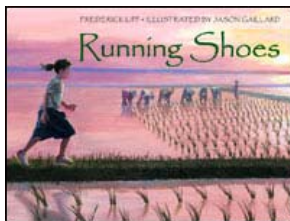

Now ten years in print!

★“Lin tells her charming story simply, and the pictures reflect its many joys.”

- Kirkus Reviews,
starred review

 Buy this book

Other Curriculum Connections: Language Arts, Family Connections, Nature and Plants.

Running Shoes

Ages 5-8

“[T]his tale provides a memorable picture both of life in Cambodia and of one girl's struggle to obtain an education.”

- Kirkus Reviews

 Buy this book

- The Amelia Bloomer list
- Notable Social Studies Trade Books for Young People
- Storytellers World Award

Other Curriculum Connections: Community, Gender Roles, Education.

Ages 6 and up

The Butter Man

Ages 6-9

“This warm family story about a rarely viewed culture will have particular appeal among children of immigrants, who, like Nora, wonder about their parents' mysterious, former lives in another land.”

- Booklist

Buy this book

- A Junior Library Guild Selection
- A Charlotte Zolotow Highly Recommended Book
- Notable Social Studies Trade Books for Young People
- A Cooperative Children's Book Center Choice
- Storytelling World Award Honor Book

Children of Native America Today

Ages 8-11

“An excellent resource for multicultural studies, this handsome album will also attract browsers.”

- Booklist

Learn more with this Activity Guide.

- Notable Books for a Global Society
- A Cooperative Children's Book Center Choice

Buy this book

Camel Rider

Ages 10-14

“This riveting survival tale set in the Arabian Gulf has two boys from very different cultures trying to find their way out of the desert wilderness.”

- Publishers Weekly

Buy this book

Learn more with this Discussion/Activity Guide.