One spider's search for a home of her own.

Remember how at the end of Charlotte's Web, all of Charlotte's babies said goodbye to Wilbur and blew away in the breeze? Did you ever wonder what happened to all those spider babies? Now you can find out. Follow Spider as she spills out from an egg sac on a warm spring day and begins her struggle to survive. She must escape the dangers of predators—including her own siblings!

Ginger Wadsworth and Patricia J. Wynne chronicle the real-life drama of one spider as she eats, grows, spins a dragline of silk, and soars up, up, and away to find a home of her own.

Ginger Wadsworth is the author of more than twenty books, including River Discoveries and Words West: Voices of Young Pioneers (Clarion). Ginger lives in Orinda, California.

Patricia J. Wynne is a well-known scientific illustrator whose art has appeared in more than 150 books, including Hello, Bumblebee Bat, a Geisel Honor Book, and The Bumblebee Queen. Patricia lives in New York City.
