Let your imagination run wild!

Lovable Lola is back in this imaginative sequel to the best-selling Lola at the Library.

Lola loves to go to the library with her daddy. Every night she reads a new story, and the next day, she acts it out. One day she's a fairy princess, the next day she goes on a trip to Lagos! She becomes a tiger, a farmer, a pilot. . . . what will Lola be next?

Children and adults will love following along with Lola's adventures. Lola Loves Stories celebrates imaginative thinking and the importance of books as a way to inspire young minds.

Anna McQuinn has worked in children's books for more than ten years as an editor, publisher, and writer. She is the author of more than twenty books for children. She also works part-time as a librarian, running family book groups. A voracious reader, Anna lives in England.

Rosalind Beardshaw grew up in England. Thanks to her creative parents, she was encouraged to draw from a young age and was taken to art galleries on rainy Saturday afternoons. Her books include Goodnight, Magic Moon (Scholastic), Mommy's Little Star (Cartwheel Books), and Mole's in Love (Egmont).
