

See How Well You Are Doing

↳ 1. Read each sentence. ↳ 2. Circle the letter of the answer choice that best defines the underlined word.

- When he hiked through the woods, Leroy tore his new shirt on brush and brambles.
a. deep pools b. thorns c. paths d. fields
- A long story can sometimes be condensed into a few sentences.
a. felt b. pleaded c. shortened d. answered
- When school let out, the students hurried through the doors, and the school building looked like an erupting volcano.
a. silent b. exploding c. frozen d. tall
- So much snow accumulated in the streets that no traffic could get through.
a. piled up b. froze c. happened d. disappeared
- The raccoon examined the crumb carefully before popping it into its mouth.
a. disliked b. ate c. looked closely at d. threw far away
- When Rita and Soon Li went camping, they took a tent, sleeping bags, water, a medicine kit, and other provisions.
a. proofs b. answers c. useless things d. supplies
- When Rashid took Emily's coat by mistake, he was not conscious of what he was doing.
a. aware b. proud c. tired d. trained
- He is so fastidious that he changes his shirt if the smallest spot is on it.
a. pretty b. picky c. fast d. unclean
- The baby reached for the keys, but Brian diverted her by handing her a balloon.
a. liked b. distracted c. distanced d. sent home
- The team received an ovation from its fans, who clapped and cheered throughout the game.
a. fear b. trouble c. enthusiastic sign of support d. gloom