

See How Well You Have Done

◇ 1. Read each sentence. ◇ 2. Circle the letter of the answer choice that best defines the underlined word.

- Before you can join the union, you must spend two years working as an apprentice.
a. trainee b. bricklayer c. messenger d. waitress
- The nurse explained that the hospital would isolate patients who have the disease.
a. destroy b. reserve c. set apart d. insult
- It is necessary for all thoughtful people to live with a set of principles.
a. heads of schools b. straight lines c. rules of conduct d. bank statements
- It is impossible for the human ear to discern certain sound-wave patterns.
a. notice b. see c. reduce d. produce
- A pattern of consistent behavior will emerge if you take the time to study children's activities.
a. change b. cease c. offend d. become noticeable
- The hungry young man consumed a huge amount of food.
a. concealed b. refused c. sold d. ate
- Cora greeted the guests in a very cordial way that made them feel welcome.
a. calm b. warm c. strained d. angry
- Maria came lumbering up the slope, breathing hard, carrying an ax and firewood.
a. selling wood b. marching c. moving heavily d. skipping
- The sky was murky and filled with heavy, rolling clouds.
a. dim b. unbalanced c. metallic d. liquid
- I do not have sufficient cash. Will you take a check?
a. mistaken b. misjudged c. paltry d. enough